HEREBY ORDERS AS FOLLOWS

Article 1: (1) An additional collection period has been set, across the national territory, for the joint operations of the 4th General Population and Housing Census and the core module of the General Agriculture and Livestock Census.

(2) The additional period referred to in paragraph 1 above shall run from 1 August 2026 to 15 September 2026.

Article 2: (1) The collection exercise aims to finalise the census operations by improving coverage of households, individuals and agricultural holdings across the whole country, in order to ensure the completeness of the joint enumeration operations for the 4th General Population and Housing Census (RGPH-4) and the core module of the General Agriculture and Livestock Census (RGAE).

(2) Accordingly, the field teams shall carry out the following operations:

- the completion of the full identification of all households that have not yet been identified;
- the identification and registration of households, individuals and agricultural holdings that have not yet been counted;
- the monitoring and verification of full geographical coverage;
- stepping up communication and awareness-raising initiatives to encourage greater public participation in the census;
- the implementation of all necessary measures to ensure the satisfactory completion and comprehensiveness of the census operations throughout the country.

Article 3: (1) Collection operations shall be carried out under the supervision of administrative authorities.

(2) Governors, Senior Divisional Officers and Sub-Divisional Officers shall be responsible for ensuring that the additional collection operation runs smoothly within their respective jurisdictions.

(3) They shall ensure that mayors, traditional leaders, neighbourhood and village heads, and community leaders are mobilised in order to facilitate census officers' access to plots of land and to raise awareness amongst the local population so that they give the census teams a warm welcome.

Article 4: (1) Throughout the census period, anyone residing in the country is required to answer questions put by census officers wearing their badges and/or carrying their official accessories.

(2) The information collected during this period shall remain strictly confidential and shall be protected by the applicable laws on statistical confidentiality.

Article 5: The Ministers in charge of Planning, Agriculture, Livestock, Fisheries, Finance and Territorial Administration shall be responsible, each within their respective jurisdiction, for the implementation of this order, which shall be registered, published and subsequently inserted in the Official Gazette in English and French.
